

FOR MEMBERS

Today in Switzerland: A round-up of the latest news on Friday

26 November 2021

08:14 CET

Today in Switzerland

Share this article

Geneva village is among Switzerland's "most beautiful"

Dardagny, a community in canton Geneva, just joined the ranks of the most beautiful villages in the country.

It is now included in the listing of the aptly named Beautiful Swiss Villages association, which describes Dardagny as "a peaceful winegrowers' village in the lush Allondon valley on the edge of the Geneva countryside".

READ MORE: Switzerland's ten most beautiful

villages you have to visit

It goes on to praise "the winegrowers' houses scattered around the imposing castle (the largest in the canton) compete for character, adorned here and there with cheerful fountains and colourful signs to create a harmonious rural living space".

Further description of Dardagny and other scenic Swiss villages, as well as a map showing where they are located, can be seen here.